ALL BODIES.

—Mrs. P. B. Ellis returned home yesterday.

—For Rent. — Large desirable rooms. Apply at this office. d1-1m
—Toilette articles, manicure sets and Christmas novelties at Chedies. #1

—Jack Campbell editor of the Enterprise was in the City yesterday.

—Shouldn't be very much surprised if we had another Indian Summer.

—Geo. Bryson Jr., wife and child returned home from their trip to California, yesterday morning.

—Physicians prescribe Ayer's Sarsaparilla in cases of scrofula, and in every form of chronic disease, because this medicine is safer to take, and is more highly concentrated, than any other preparation. It can always be depended upon as an effective blood purifier.

—The members of the U. S. Geological Survey left last evening for Washington. They were obliged to break camp on account of the foggy weather. They will resume operations about the 1st of April next. During their stay here they covered about 200 square miles of territory.

—It is reported that a man in this city drew $5,000 in the lottery on a ticket purchased in San Francisco, but is keeping quiet as he is one of those men who is anxious to have his neighbors think that he never dabbles in lottery. He probably proposes to get rid of his money before the Assessor gets around.

—The editor of the APPEAL acknowledges the receipt of a plug hat from W. A. Peairs a Democrat of San Francisco.

In all our experience with Democrats this is the first one who ever settled a jaw bone bet with us.

We feel like letting down the party bars and allowing him to come in.

—The sun has paid a great compliment to the Lick Observatory of California by drawing the center of its total eclipse right across the Observatory dome, instead of right across the gable end of our office. The Observatory has downed us this time, but this office proposes to corral the next earthquake, or it will make trouble for somebody.

—Ambrose Bierce's poem, "The Passing Show" in the Christmas Examiner will add to the high standing he already occupies as a writer. The production should give him lasting fame as a poet; the grace of versification, modeled after the quatrains style of Omar, the subtle touches of meaning and the strength and dignity of expression makes it a masterpiece.

To Delinquent Subscribers.
Parties in this State and elsewhere owing to the APPEAL are requested to settle by Jan. 1st, or the accounts will be placed in the hands of attorneys who will collect in the Justice Court.

Of course this doesn't mean the man who is reading this paragraph; it means the fellow around their corner or in the next town.

Masquerade.
The masquerade ball to be given at the Opera House on the 23d of next month by Carson Lodge, No. 4, Knights of Pythias, will be an elaborate affair. John P. Meder proposes to train twelve young ladies in evolutions, and they will be prettily costumed. Another feature will be the Uniform Rank, K. of P.

Special Notice.
All parties having claims against the County, are requested to present them on or before Friday the 28th inst. The Board of County Commissioners will meet on Monday, 31st.

WM. HY DOANE, Clerk.

MR. FRANK NEWLANDS.

A Renowned Senatorial Candidate.

The San Francisco Examiner has the following:

The mere fact that Frank G. Newlands had bought a house in Carson, Nevada, as announced the other day in the Examiner, and intended to establish a residence in that place, is not in itself a very absorbing piece of news, though the movements of Mr. Newlands are never wholly without interest.

But to those in this city who follow the course of the remarkable politics of Nevada, the announcement had a deep interest and significance.

There is but one opinion among such of the Nevada politicians as have been seen by the Examiner reporters, and that is that Mr. Newlands intends to give Senator Jones a shake-up for the United States Senatorship two years hence, and that his establishment of a residence within that State is a preliminary step.

As is well known, Mr. Newlands is a Democrat. As is well known also, he is a trustee of the immense Sharon estate, which is largely composed of property in Nevada.

That Mr. Newlands should aspire to represent that State in the Senate is therefore not improbable.

If it be believed in Nevada that Mr. Newlands intends to enter the field, and that Senator Jones means to hold on to what he has, it will create no little excitement in that State, where the past two Senatorial campaigns have afforded not very much fun and very little picking.

FUN FOR THE BOYS.

"I think that's what Newlands means," said the Honorable H. K. Mitchell, formerly of Eureka. "I heard whispers of some such a plan before. I would not like to say whether Jones would fight very hard to retain his seat, but I expect he would. He is fond of public life, and likes Washington. Besides, he has hosts of friends in the Senate, and is already one of the biggest and oldest members, which gives him great importance in that body. He has money now to make the fight. If he should, and Newlands goes in against him, wouldn't there be fun for the boys?" and Mr. Mitchell chuckled in a way that seemed to indicate that in the event of such a battle he might return to Nevada himself.

The Next Attraction.

The New York Clipper of October 18th says: Lydia Thompson made her American reappearance, after an absence of several years, at the Star Theater, Monday night, Oct. 15th, to a large and very cordial audience. She was welcomed with heartiness, and acted with her old-time earnestness. Her opening burlesque was "Penelope." It was elegantly costumed, and had the added advantage of new and rich scenery from the brush of D. B. Hughes. J. B. Radcliff, Marie Williams and Lilly Allison made their American reappearance in the cast, and all were successful, Miss Williams, in particular, winning praise. Edward Solomon's music was graceful and lively throughout. Many American debuts were made by the minor members of the troupe.

They will appear at the Opera House, Monday, Dec. 31st. ♦

Jewelry Display.

There is a glittering display of jewelry, diamonds and ladies' watches in the show window of the Rissel building. The designs are of the latest, and will be sold during holidays, at prices which can not be duplicated in the State.

The assortment embraces all kinds of the most fashionable jewelry and tableware. Call and inspect goods and prices.

—A toilet luxury in every respect. Ayer's Hair Vigor never fails to restore the youthful freshness and color to faded and gray hair. It also eradicates dandruff and prevents the hair from falling.

Nevada Weather.

Sagebrushers who visit San Francisco all come back cursing the "glorious climate of California." They say it is nothing but a succession of raw winds, heavy fogs and drizzling rains. There is no regular storm, but just a half-and-half pretense of one. They would rather have the regular old Washoe blasts roar up and down the canyons of Nevada, than to have the miserable, meteorological make-shifts that one gets in San Francisco.

For weeks we have had mild, sunny days and blue skies, up to a few days ago, and even now, after one little flurry of snow, the blue patches of sky indicate more clear weather.

The storms which sweep over California crowd up against the Sierra range, and there pause before trying to mount the crest of rocks and pines that protect Nevada.

When a fog comes in here it trails along the mountains in detached fragments, and rarely invades the valleys.

Everyone who puts in any time in San Francisco comes back to Nevada to get a gleam of sunshine and shake off the coughs and colds that hang to the lungs, and soak out the rheumatism that racks the body.

At Burlington's.
Just received a full line of Gents' Kangaroo and English Perpoise shoes. These are something new and are warranted to wear out three pair of soles.

A Mild Winter Predicted.

The Silver State says: Leroy Arnold, who has spent a quarter of a century, more or less, hunting for mines in the Blackrock country, has now become a weather prophet, all the same as the Canadian Wiggins. He predicts an open, mild Winter and thinks the Humboldt will not be frozen over. When asked what he bases his opinion upon, he looks wise, and will not give any explanation, save that rabbits are scarce and there is no pine nuts. Hard Winters, he says, kills off the rabbits. This occurred last year, when the temperature was lower than it had been before for many years, and another such season would not leave a rabbit alive. Nature guards against their extinction by having a series of mild Winters follow a severe one, and in the natural course of events this is to be an open Winter. Three time since he came to Nevada rabbits have been as scarce as they are now, and mild Winters invariably followed the cold ones which killed them off, but that is only one of the signs upon which his prediction is founded.
